

Happy Presidents' Day

FROM YOUR BUDDIES AT CAPTAINS OF INDUSTRY

P-Day is one of those holidays that we love to get the day off for, but don't actually celebrate. At Captains, we believe no day should go uncelebrated. So we created some cards even Hallmark would be jealous of. We recommend mailing these to your co-workers you won't see on Monday because you'll be at home hung-over. Which is sort of makes Presidents' Day like any other Monday, except with greeting cards.
